- 6. Insecurity of the Internet. CONNECTION TO THE INTERNET CREATES INSECURITY. Security and disruption problems are inherent in the Internet. The very openness of the Internet creates risks that the Internet is insecure, and vulnerable to both intentional and unintentional disruption. Security breaches can occur for teclinical and other reasons, and, despite the implementation of security ineasures, we cannot guarantee that our networks are not vulnerable to unauthorized and illegal access, computer viruses and other disruptive problems. Our ability to provide our services depends in part on the reliability of the Internet and the internets, and our services can also be negatively affected by limitations inherent in the technology infrastructure supporting the Internet and the internal networks of Internet users. Customer must provide adequate information security for their own networks by using appropriately complex passwords, firewalls, and updated anti-virus and anti-spyware software.
- 7. Default. An event of default ("Event of Default") shall occurrence of all or any one of the following events: (a) the Customer does not pay when due any invoice; (b) the Customer eeases doing business as a going concern; (c) the Customer inakes an assignment for the benefit of its creditors or admits in writing to its inability to pay its debts as they become due; (d) the Customer files, or has filed against it, a petition in bankruptey or for its reorganization, arrangement, composition or readjustment under any state insolvency law or the Customer liquidates all or a substantial part of its assets not in the ordinary course of its business, dissolves or takes other similar action; or (e) the Customer shall default in the performance of any of its obligations to TDS or any assignee arising under this Agreement, or any other agreement between the Customer and TDS and such default is not cured within 30 days of TDS providing notice of same, unless prohibited by relevant federal, state or local law.
- 8. Remedies. Úpon the occurrence of an Event of Default, unless prohibited by relevant federal, state or local law, TDS may, at its option and without notice or demand, exercise all or any one or more of the following remedies: (a) declare immediately due and payable all invoices and all other sums due, including termination charges, or to become due hereunder or under any other agreement between the Customer and TDS; (b) terminate all of its obligations arising under this Agreement, and any other agreement between Customer and TDS; (e) enter the premises where any of TDS' equipment is located and repossess all or any part of the equipment; (d) offset any amounts due TDS under this Agreement against any amounts TDS or any of its affiliates owes the Customer (or the Customer's affiliates) under any other agreement; or (e) exercise all other legal and equitable remedies which TDS may have. The foregoing remedies shall be deemed cumulative and may be exercised successively or concurrently as permitted by law.
- 9. Interruption of Services. For any interruption of Service that is not due to negligence or non-compliance with any term or eondition of this Agreement by Customer or the failure of operation or malfunction of facilities, power or equipment provided by the Customer, Customer will be entitled to a credit against the mouthly Recurring Charge for such Service. Service will be deemed to be interrupted from the time TDS receives notice from Customer that the Service is not working until the time the Service is working. Unless provided otherwise by law or tariff, credits shall be calculated on the basis of a 30-day month and shall be eredited upon Customer request against the monthly Recurring Charge for such Service as follows:
 - First 30 ininutes; none
 - 30 minutes to 3 hours: 1/10 day
 - Each additional 3 hour period (or fraction thereof): 1/5 day

If the duration of the outage is more than 24 hours, then the eredit shall be the daily pro-rated amount of the Customer's monthly Recurring Charge for the applicable Service for each day thereafter, in an aggregate amount not to exceed the monthly Recurring Charge for such Service. Credits under this provision shall be the Customer's sole remedy and TDS' sole liability for any Service outage.

11. Term and Termination.

- TDS will provide Customer with the Services pursuant to the rates, terms and conditions specified herein, commencing on the latter of the requested service date or the day following the date in which TDS notifies Customer that the Service is ready for use ("Service Commencement Date"). At the expiration of any Service Term, this Agreement shall continue in effect with respect to the Service on a month-to-month basis until canceled by either party on 30 days written notice; provided, however that the charges for the Service during any renewal period shall be at the then-current monthly rate charged by TDS for such Service. Unless specifically exempted, Services shall be subject to all general regulations applicable to the provision of Service and rates charged for such Service by TDS and stated in its general tariff including late payment charges, termination charges, and related expenses. Upon any termination of the Services herein, Customer shall return all TDS-owned equipment in good working condition to TDS, or Customer will be responsible for the full cost of the equipment. Customer is responsible for any damage to equipment provided by TDS.
- Customers who terminate their Service prior to the expiration of the Term shall be liable for the repayment of any promotional eredits, discounts or fee waivers including but not limited to installation fee waivers and for reimbursement of any special eonstruction or non-recurring charges for Services or related facilities requested by Customer. Unless otherwise set forth under applieable tariff, if Customer terminates Service prior to expiration of the Term, Customer shall pay an early termination fee equal to: (a) the difference between the amount billed had the Customer been billed at the rate applicable under an agreement which had a term equal to the term between the effective date of this Agreement and the termination date; plus (b) the full purchase price of any equipment as shown above, minus the amounts already paid on a per month basis up to the date of termination. In addition, specifically with regard to Call Recording Services, Customer shall pay an early termination fee equal to 50% of the contracted monthly recurring charges for such Call Recording Services for each month remaining on the initial term. If there is a partial eancellation, any volume discounts going forward will be applied based only on the remaining volume. Either party may cancel this Agreement without liability in the event TDS is prohibited from providing service or if any material rate or term contained herein is substantially changed by final order of a court, administrative agency, or other body of competent jurisdiction. Termination charges will not apply if the Customer replaces the Service with a new contract with a term equal to or greater than the original term with a ininimum commitment equal to at least 75% of the original commitment level under this Agreement. Each Service designation is deemed a separate service and cancellation of any single service shall not affect the other services ordered by Customer in this Agreement. Customer agrees that the forgoing early termination fees are fair and reasonable and that TDS's provision of the Services would not be commercially viable but for these Customer commitments.
- 11.3 This Agreement shall remain effective until terminated in aecordance with the provisions set forth herein.
- 12. Subsequent Additions/Deletions. For each new product or service added to this Agreement after a 60-day grace period, installation charges will apply. Installation charges for advanced business products will be quoted at the time of request on an individual case basis. Subsequent feature deletions, after a 60-day grace period, will be assessed a service order charge per account. Any preferred customer discounts, volume discounts or promotional discounts are subject to change if Customer deletes services from the original service agreement. Any adjustments in special discounts will be quoted at the time of the request on an individual case basis.
- 13. Special Construction. Where facilities are not available or if equipment, new facilities or changes to existing facilities are required for the provision of additional services, a special construction charge will apply in addition to the monthly service charge. Customer may be required to pay additional charges or to contract for Services beyond the normal service term, or both.

Managed Voice Services:

Appia's managed voice solutions combine voice, video, and data over a single, reliable, high-speed connection.

IP-CTX and IP-PBX – These robust IP communication solutions have all the features and functions of a costly PBX, but without the capital investment. All that is needed are IP phones, and cost savings are immediate.

Appia's voice services also include such features as ad-hoc audio conferencing, voicemail-to-email, fax-to-email, free interoffice calling, and domestic and international call rates that are a fraction of what the major carriers charge. Because they are managed services, Appia's voice solutions can also be easily and quickly scaled up or down as business cycles demand.

Service Level Assurances

We understand that communication and networking services are essential, and that our customers' businesses can be affected by any interruption in our services. We therefore offer the following Service Level Assurances (SLAs).

- 1. Service interruptions may not exceed a total of one business hour per month. A "service interruption" means the inability of Customer to use the affected service as that service was provided by Appia prior to the interruption.
 - a. Service interruptions that are beyond Appia's reasonable control (including interruptions caused by third parties, Customer, Customer's agent, or Customer's equipment) are not covered by these SLAs.
 - i. Applia files claims with its vendors in the event of vendor service interruptions. Should Applia receive a credit, Applia will pass 100% of that credit along to Customer.
 - b. For MPLS customers, service interruptions due to a vendor interruption or outage within the core of Appia's network (as opposed to customer's network access), will be covered by these SLAs
 - c. The cause of an interruption will be determined by Appia at its sole discretion.

Service Level Assurances (Con't)

- 2. In the event that total interruptions do exceed one business hour, we will provide the affected service to Customer at no charge for the month in which the interruption occurred. Total interruptions are equal to the sum of all interruptions for the affected service(s) during a given month.
- 3. For the purposes of these SLAs, business hours are 8 A.M. to 5 P.M., Monday through Friday, in the Customer's time zone.
- 4. To qualify for this credit, Customer must report the interruption by:
 - a. Speaking with an Appia technician or engineer, but not by voicemail, at 877-277-4297, option 3, or
 - b. Notifying us by email to support@appiaservices.com
 - c. Reports of service interruptions by any other means will not be accepted for the purposes of these SLAs.
 - d. Interruptions are calculated from the time Customer notifies Appia until the time service is restored.
- 5. Customer agrees that these remedies are Customer's sole and exclusive remedies in the event of service interruptions. Appia is not responsible to Customer for any incidental or consequential damages that Customer may incur as a result of a service interruption, so long as such interruption is not due to Appia's gross negligence or willful misconduct.

Appia Network and Infrastructure

Appia has two Network Operations Centers (NOCs) and several points of presence (PoPs) or aggregation points across the U.S.:

- Chicago and Elk Grove Village (IL)
- Dallas
- Detroit
- Indianapolis
- Los Angeles
- New York
- Seattle
- St Louis
- Washington, D.C.

Each of these sites is connected to the Internet by at least two connections from different Tier 1 carriers.

Our primary service infrastructure (for voice, video, etc.) is in our NOCs in Chicago and St Louis, where we maintain redundant equipment. Applied maintains redundant Acme Packet Session Border Controllers (SBC's) in these two locations, along with redundant Least Cost Routing (LCR's) engines and redundant Feature servers in each of these NOCs.

There is also fiber between the two Chicago and St Louis NOCs, to enable geographical redundancy.

Customers Served

Our customers range from one to 60,000 employees and from one to over 200 locations. They occupy all major verticals, including construction, education, finance, entertainment, government, healthcare, legal, manufacturing, and engineering.

In addition to retail and enterprise customers, Appia serves wholesale communications providers that leverage our network and scale to better serve their end-user customers.

Scope of Work

Appia will provide hosted telephony services to the City of Quincy for 14 physical locations based on Appia's per seat pricing model for a term of 36 months of service.

All implementation will be completed by Appia's assigned project team to include a project manager, engineer, and provisioner in conjunction with onsite resources from Ready Communications. Implementation will include a survey of each location, proper network assessment as needed, provisioning of all equipment, number porting, onsite installation, testing, and end user as well as administrative training. Appia's proposed solution also includes our unique "Onsite Disaster Recovery". This will allow all sites to be redundant and failover at 3 physical locations as needed. This proposal also includes a dedicated 1.5m T1 connection into Appia's secure datacenter to ensure reliability and voice quality.

Phone numbers/number portability:

In Appia's research it was determined that the City of Quincy's phone numbers are not portable. The City of Quincy will need the ability to remote call forward existing POTS lines to Appia provided DID's for inbound calling. Outbound calling will traverse the Appia provided MPLS T1 connection and out to the PSTN. If 911 is dialed Appia will provide an FXS Gateway device to route those calls over the POTS lines and to the appropriate 911 rate center.

Phones and hardware:

The Appia proposed IP phones is the Yealink T46 model color screen IP phone. Please refer to the attached Yealink document for phone specifications. This is an open SIP IP phone designed to work on the Appia platform but would also be compatible with many other hosted PBX platforms.

Some Appia hardware is provided on a rent to own basis for a per month charge instead of one time cost. The City of Quincy would own any rent to own hardware at the end of the specified term. All hardware is provided with a one year warranty.

Deploy Appia Cubed the way you want

Appia offers four ways to deploy Appia Cubed. Choose the approach that best meets your requirements and preferences.

- 1. Hosted The simplest and most cost-effective option is to use Appia's hosted service. All you need are phones, standard IP networking equipment, and access to the internet. Make changes yourself or let us make them for you.
- 2. Use our SIP trunks with a premise-based system Our SIP trunks provide all of the features of standard telephone lines but at a much lower cost. And because we don't put a limit on the number of concurrent calls you can make or receive over our SIP trunks, there's no need for new phone lines as you grow.
- 3. Colocate your server in our data center with SIP trunks Appia provides colocation for your server in our data center, together with SIP trunks. Colocating adds a layer of disaster recovery protection: even if your office experiences an outage, your phone services will work without disruption.
- 4. Use an Appia virtual server with SIP trunks If you'd rather not invest in a server, use one of our virtual servers. We can provide either a fully-managed solution or just provide Windows server so you can manage the phone system.

Fair Use

Appia offers certain voice, text, video, and data services on an unlimited basis. This policy applies to such services.

Unlimited services are intended for traditional business use.

- Internet browsing, non-spam email, and intranet access (including access to corporate intranets, email and individual productivity applications like customer relationship management, and sales force and field service automation)
- Live person to person calls.

Unlimited voice or data service plans cannot be used with server devices, host computer applications or other systems that drive continuous heavy traffic or data sessions. Examples of such prohibited uses include, without limitation, call centers, autodialers, educational institutions, mass-marketing, polling, web camera posts or broadcasts, continuous file transfers, automatic data feeds, telemetry applications, automated functions or any other machine-to-machine applications. Such sessions cannot be used as substitute for private lines or frame relay connections.

If originating information is available, Appia shall use that information to determine jurisdiction (interstate or intrastate) and to assign each call the applicable rate. If originating information is not available, valid or able to be determined, Appia considers the call of "Indeterminate Jurisdiction" and assign the default Indeterminate Rate.

Fraudulent Calling

Customer is solely responsible for selection, implementation, and maintenance of security features for protection against unauthorized calling, and Appia shall have no liability therefore. Customer is solely responsible for payment of long distance, toll, and other charges incurred through the use of the Services. Customer agrees to arrange, at Customer's expense, for any extension of the existing demarcation point within Customer's facilities, should such extension be required for delivery of the Services.

In the event Customer does not provide the required assistance and/or access, Appia may suspend the Services until such access has been granted.

Service Level Assurance

Appia understands that communication and networking services are essential. Appia therefore offer the following Service Level Assurance (SLA).

Service interruptions may not exceed a total of one business hour per month. A "service interruption" means Customer's inability to use the affected service as that service was provided by Appia prior to the interruption.

In the event that total interruptions for Services do exceed one business hour, Appla will grant Customer a one-month credit against future Services for the affected Service. (Total interruptions equal the sum of all interruptions for the affected service during a given month.)

Moreover, if, within any 30-day period, (i) Services are down for more than twenty-four consecutive hours, or (ii) there are more than three outages of one hour or more, Customer shall have the right to cancel without penalty or other charges beyond changes for Services already provided.

Service interruptions that are beyond Appia's reasonable control (including, without limitation, Interruptions caused by Customer, Customer's agents, or Customer's equipment) are not covered by this SLA. The cause of an interruption will be determined by Appia at its sole discretion.

THIS SLA DOES NOT APPLY TO MOBILE SERVICES OR THIRD PARTY SERVICES.

Under no circumstances shall Appia provide service credits for Third-Party Service outages or other issues. Appia file claims with vendors in the event of vendor service interruptions. Should Appia receive a credit, Appia will pass that credit along to Customer.

Routine events, such as maintenance and repairs, upgrades and reconfigurations, may result in temporary impairment or interruption in the Services. Appia shall use reasonable commercial efforts to schedule such events outside of normal business hours and to advise Customer in advance of such events. Customer shall not be compensated under this SLA for such events.

For the purposes of this SLA, business hours are the Customer's normal, non-holiday hours, Monday through Friday, in Customer's time zone.

To qualify for this credit, Customer must report the interruption by: peaking with a technician or engineer at Appia's NOC, or notifying Appia by email.

Reports of service interruptions by any other means will not be accepted for the purposes of this SLA.

Interruptions are calculated from the time Customer notifies Appia until the time service is restored.

Any credit request must be reported within 30 days of the closing of the trouble ticket related to the incident.

Customer agrees that these remedies are Customer's sole and exclusive remedies in the event of service interruptions. Appia is not responsible to Customer for any incidental or consequential damages that Customer may incur as a result of a service interruption, so long as such interruption is not due to Appia's gross negligence or willful misconduct.

Video Services

Appia shall use reasonable commercial efforts to provide video Services. Customer understands and agrees that if Customer chooses to use the Services by connecting to the internet (as opposed to connections provided by Appia), the quality of the Services may be degraded.

MOBILE SERVICES

Service Provision

The quality and availability of the Services may be affected by factors outside of Appia's control, including, without limitation, local physical obstructions, atmospheric conditions, other causes of radio interference, features or functionality of Customer device, the number of people trying to use the Network at the same time, and faults in other networks to which the Network is connected. The quality of Services may not be at their best Inside buildings or below ground. Coverage maps are Appia's best estimate, but are not a guarantee of coverage.

Roaming

When Customer purchases a device from Appia, Appia checks the coverage against the address Customer provided to ensure Customer will have a good signal in and around Customer home location. If Customer finds that Customer is constantly roaming onto other networks in Customer home location due to poor signal strength, Customer should contact our customer service center.

Customer may find that Customer's device will switch to a domestic roaming partner in certain areas while travelling; this is normal behavior for all networks as no single network covers all of the United States.

Mobile Internet, Content Downloads, and Applications Appia is not liable for any content on third-party website. Appia may provide mobile content for download through its own mobile website. This content may consist of news, ringtones, full music tracks, video and games and will be provided by third-party content providers who will have obtained the necessary contractual licensing agreements required to sell or promote such content. Appia will not be held liable for any content sold or promoted on the Services, obtained by these third-party content providers.

Not all applications will be compatible with Customer's device, and it is Customer's responsibility to adhere to any further terms and conditions outlined by each individual application provider, which may also require the disclosure of personal information. For the avoidance of doubt, Appia will not be held liable for the performance of or impact on other services by any third-party applications.

Appia also recommends that Customer back up any photographs or downloaded content using other means, as some content may expire or can be deleted or lost, Appia will not be held liable for the loss of any mobile content.

Devices

Appia will provide any warranties or help guides as supplied by the manufacturer. Appia make no warranties or representations regarding any devices and accept no liability.

If for whatever reason Customer decides Customer wants to return Customer's device to Appia, or if Customer has changed Customer's mind and wants a different device, Customer may return the device to us within seven days of receipt. A restocking fee of $20 will be charged to Customer's account and Appia will only accept devices that are returned in the condition they were originally shipped, including original packing. Under no circumstances will any devices be accepted as a return if the device has been broken or damaged.

Number Porting and Exporting

Customer may be able to keep an existing mobile phone number when Customer signs up for the Services. However, Appla does not accept any liability for Customer's existing service provider's services or charges.

If Customer decides to terminate the Services and move to another provider, Customer may take Customer's mobile phone number with Customer as long as all outstanding charges have been settled in full.

If Customer has an existing device from another provider, Customer may not be able to use it, but Appia has a wide range of devices Customer can choose from.

Customer's device will only work with the Services. If Customer decides to leave, Customer may be able to port Customer's number to another service provider. This will be subject to Customer's new service provider's terms and conditions, and Appia will not be held liable in the event Customer's number cannot be transferred.

Location-Based Services

Once activated, Customer's device will automatically communicate with our network and provide us with information based on Customer's location. Circumstances beyond our control (including, without limitation, geographic, atmospheric, network roaming or other circumstances) could affect the accuracy of location-based services. Appia cannot guarantee that location-based services will be available at any specific time or geographic location. Location-based services will not operate if Customer's device is switched off.

By using location-based services, Customer agrees to allow Appia to monitor and track the location of Customer's device. Appia may be required by law to disclose information about the location of Customer's device.

Customer also agrees to allow Appia to provide third parties with information on the location of Customer's device for the ability to deliver location-based advertising, content, and promotional information related to Customer's geographical location.

Unsolicited Messages

While Appia will not share Customer's personal details with any companies not associated with the delivery of the Services to Customer, Appia does not guarantee that Customer will not receive spam or other unsolicited messages, and Customer agrees that Appia is not liable for such messages.

If Customer is subject to threatening, menacing, derogatory or any other kind of harmful messages, Customer should contact Appia and Appia may, if required, change Customer's mobile phone number.

Lost or Stolen Devices

If Customer loses a device or if it has been stolen, Customer should contact Appia immediately. Appia will temporarily block Customer's Services and re-activate Customer's Services if Customer find Customer's device to avoid any unauthorized use. Any products, bundles, or services that have been pre-paid will not be affected by this process and will expire according to Customer's normal billing process.

In the event Customer's device was stolen and cannot be recovered, Appia can help Customer select a new device, which will be payable by Customer in full and can be setup with Customer's existing phone number and Services. In order to avoid any reconnection charges, Customer must select and activate Customer's new device within ten days from the date Customer first notified Appia of the theft of Customer's existing device. Customer accepts liability for any and all usage charges made until the time Appia blocks Customer's service.
